

Buildings

archINFORM

<http://www.archinform.net/index.htm?ID=e203bb731a6da39bd4e42d59644a3de6>

Database of over 1,300 built and unrealized projects for international architecture.

Great Buildings Online site

<http://www.greatbuildings.com/>

Documents buildings and leading architects, with 3D models, photographic images, architectural drawings, commentaries, bibliographies, and links.

High Rise Building Database (Council on Tall Buildings and Urban Habitat)

<http://www.emporis.com/en/bu/sk/>

The Council's web site is undergoing renovation and will probably be available in September 2005.

Cambridge, MA buildings and architects

<http://hul.harvard.edu/huarc/refshelf/cba/index.html>

Harvard/Radcliffe Online Historical Reference includes images. Emphasis on Harvard University and surrounding neighborhood.

Death of the Dream: Farmhouses in the Heartland

<http://www.pbs.org/ktca/farmhouses/index.html>

includes a virtual farmhouse

The Lower Eastside Tenement Museum Virtual Tour

http://www.tenement.org/Virtual\_Tour/index\_virtual.html

97 Orchard Street in New York City

World Trade Coverage

<http://www.emporis.com/en/bu/sk/wt/>

Includes original construction information, usage phase, redevelopment.

NOVA Online

<http://www.pbs.org/wgbh/nova/wtcl/>

The companion PBS Web site to "Why the Towers Fell," originally broadcast on April 30, 2002.