

Landscape Architecture

Organizations, Memberships

American Horticultural Society

<http://www.ahs.org>

The AHS is the oldest national gardening organization in the US.

International Society of Arboriculture

<http://www.isa-arbor.com>

A worldwide organization dedicated to promoting the professional practice of arboriculture.

The Maple Society

<http://www.ubcbotanicalgarden.org/maplesociety>

The society produces a list of certified arborists and provides advice on arboricultural matters.

Conifer Society

<http://www.conifersociety.org/cs/index.php>

Includes a conifer database and a photo library.

SelecTree

<http://selectree.calpoly.edu/>

Interactive program designed to match tree species to sites based on compatible characteristics.

Arnold Arboretum of Harvard University

<http://www.arboretum.harvard.edu/index.html>

The Arboretum's mission is to increase knowledge of woody plants through research and education.

Databases and Journals

Invasivespecies.gov

<http://www.invasivespecies.gov>

Read species profiles and find links to agencies and organizations dealing with invasive species issues.

Plant database (sponsored by the University of Connecticut)

<http://www.hort.uconn.edu:591/search.html>

Trees, shrubs, and vines.

Journal of Arboriculture

<http://www.treelink.org/joa/>

A bimonthly peer-reviewed journal devoted to the dissemination of knowledge in the science and art of planting and caring for trees in the urban environment.

Gardens

Therapeutic gardens

<http://www.healinglandscapes.org/index.html>

A forum for discussion about therapeutic landscapes, bibliographic information and a robust links page are included.